Foods Alive Launches Organic Good'N Hearty Onion Ring Clusters

Say goodbye to greasy fried onion rings and hello to onions with a purpose

Angola, Indiana (February 19, 2016) – The leading crafters of life-giving, mineral-rich, organic foods have added a brand new line of Super Veggies to its snack lineup. Foods Alive organic Good'N Hearty Onion Ring Clusters are made right here in the USA, using the finest certified organic, vegan, kosher, and gluten free ingredients. Foods Alive has created another simple, healthy whole food snack that everyone can enjoy.

Snacking can be healthy when it supplies you with protein, fiber and Omega EFA's. Good'N Hearty Onion Ring Clusters start with field-fresh organic yellow onions that are smothered with a batter made of nutrient rich pumpkin, sunflower, sesame and hulled hemp seeds with a sprinkling of Reishi mushrooms. Once they're finished dehydrating at a low temperature, you're left with an outlandishly delicious and nutritious whole food snack. Since these aren't fried, you can say goodbye to greasy fried onion rings and hello to onions with a purpose! Besides snacking on these straight from the bag, you can use them like croutons on your next salad with one of our gourmet superfood salad dressings. Enjoy these healthy, energy-packed treats in school lunches for your kids, plane trips, road trips, backpacking, camping or as an after workout snack!

Foods Alive Good'N Hearty Onion Ring Clusters are certified organic, non-GMO, raw, gluten free, vegan and kosher and are packaged in a 2-ounce re-sealable stand-up bag with a suggested retail price of $7.49. This new Super Veggie is the first addition of its kind to the soon-to-be popular Raw, Organic Super Veggie line at Foods Alive. Foods Alive also produces its very own line of Flax Crackers, Power Crackers, Artisan Cold-Pressed Oils, Superfood Dressings and more. Foods Alive products are available at hundreds of health food stores across the United States, and many leading web retailers including Amazon.com, Vitacost.com, LuckyVitamin.com and Puritan's Pride.
